Hurry Up This Way Again

The Stylistics

Oh, how it hurts
Loving someone who has someone else
So many nights
I spend here, all alone, by myself

Whenever you're with him
Who's loving me? Nobody

Hurry up this way, again
I love you
Hurry up this way, again

I never know
When I'm going to see you, again
Can't make no plans
I just see you whenever I can

What happens in between?
I sit and dream about you

Hurry up this way, again
I love you
Hurry up this way, again

So many nights I spend
Here, all alone... I love you

Hurry up this way, again
I need you
Hurry up this way, again
I want you

I don't want nobody else
Hurry up this way, again
I love you
I've got to have you
