Sweet Insanity

Dog Fashion Disco

convulsing to your violent rhythm twisting and turning en utero i'm out of my body and swimming through you a nightmarish dream like a maze dream like a maze dream like a mazefrom the rolling hills of suicide everyone will run and hide screaming bloody murder
with their heads of fire there just may be a chance for me
my sweet insanity
if you would take me with you on your trip to the moondisfigured faces in technicolor like roses on the death bed of your dying mother as the seasons grow in to the angriest people sadistic and slightly deranged everyone has changed slightly derangedfrom the rolling hills of suicide
you on your trip to the moonoh your wicked smile oh your evil ways won't convince me the sky isn't falling downmy sweet insanity look what we've become the envy of everyoneinspired by your madness like furious wind in a storm slowly growing cold i'm fallin in love with youfrom the rolling hills of suicide

you on your trip to the moon
