

Now U Want My Love

Ms. Dynamite

Remember when I was so weak for you
Remember when I felt so deep for you
I remember the day that I cried for you
Remember the days I thought I'd die for you But you said you had no time for me
Said that you and I would never be
Said you wouldn't mind gettin' up between my legs
But not good enough to be your girl, that's what you said How you broke my heart that day, all the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me
How you broke my heart that day, all the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me And now you want my love
So what ya tryin' to tell me, now I'm good enough
And now you want my time
If you think you're gunna get it must be out ya fuckin' mind Now it was pure disrespect that you showed me
Now suddenly a brother wanna know me
Is it because I'm Ms. Dynamite
That suddenly you wantin' me to be your wifey You're showing how shallow you really are
'Coz all this shit don't make me no superstar
Lickle name, lickle fame, up in dis game
Shit ain't changed, shit ain't changed
I'm still the same, I'm still the same girl Whose heart you broke that day, all the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me
That girl whose heart you broke that day, all the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me And now you want my love
So what ya tryin' to tell me, now I'm good enough
And now you want my time
If you think you're gunna get it must be out ya fuckin' mind And now you want my love
So what ya tryin' to tell me, now I'm good enough
And now you want my time
If you think you're gunna get it must be out ya fuckin' mind Now you tried misusin', abusin' and usin'
Was it ammusin' when you was confusin'
And left me in sorrow
Now tell me who's in control And it was so upsettin' but now I'm lettin'
You know my love you ain't gettin'
I'm bettin' that you regrettin' the day you stole
That lickle piece of my soul And now you want my love
So what ya tryin' to tell me, now I'm good enough
And now you want my time
If you think you're gunna get it must be out ya fuckin' mind And now you want my love

So what ya tryin' to tell me, now I'm good enough
And now you want my time
If you think you're gunna get it must be out ya fuckin' mind
