Broken Bones

CHVRCHES

Catch them and kill them
You're only hope is evil
I will not die, I will keep quiet
I will hold you high aboveYou're on your own
Wait till dawn and then goNo help here from heaven
You're not as real as I am
I will wake up the dark eyes
Until your blood is outYou're on your own
I'm lying here
Inside your sleep
Keep yourself
Awake for this
Wait till dawn and then goOur love will never die
Broken bones and promises
Your weakness is clear now
I see you're kind eyesYou're on your own
Wait till dawn and then goYou are another one
Buried here by no one
I will keep you inside with your soul live
You're on your own
Keep your head beneath your hands
Play your part
All on your own
Closed and bruised
You're on your ownSee inside yourself
See inside yourself
