Girls Do What They Want

The Maine

She's 18 and a beauty queen (a beauty queen)
She makes the boys feel so weak (so weak)
It's all for her or none at all
She'll pick you up just to watch you fall
It's her hands on my hips, I can't escape 'em
It's that mouth and those lips, try not to taste 'em
That's just the way things are
And the way they'll always be
Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)
Boys do what they can
Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)
Boys do what they can
She's 18 and a beauty queen
She's figured out all the boys like me
Head to toe, you know she's dressed to kill (dressed to kill)
And she could the way she's lookin' at me
It's her face and those eyes, I can't escape 'em
It's that mouth and those lies, try not to taste 'em
That's just the way things are
And the way they'll always be
Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)
Boys do what they can

Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)
Boys do what they can
That's just the way things are (that's just the way things are)
Because the boys are feelin' jealous
And it just doesn't make any sense
Go on and tell 'em
Why the girls are into fellas
That toss 'em to the side in the end
And you know that all the
The boys are fallin' in love
With girls who don't know what's up
I think we've all had enough of this now
These kids are talkin' bout love
I think we've all had enough
We've had enough of this now
Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)

Boys do what they can
Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)
Boys do what they can
Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)
Boys do what they can
Girls do what they want (whoa... whoa...)
Boys do what they can
