Sensory Deprivation

Sloan

Don't take it from me
But Altered States scared meShould have realized it
I never recognized himIt's when he tore apart the lab with the monkey on his back
And now he'll never give up until security can pull him aside
Only the doctors disagree
The goats don't mind
He's playing his lover like a broadmind
And now its happening to meDon't take it from me
Everyone can try to save his life
'Cause evidently he's unable
Should have realized it
It's when he tore apart the lab with the monkey on his back
I never recognized him
And now he'll never give up because he knows what he's going to do
