The Most Depressing Song

The Get Up Kids

Long way from home,
lost by an echo,
never have known,
I've got pictures to prove I was there,
but you don't care,
here's me overseas,
cross the pond,
by the Dover Peeks, I've smuggled myself into new nationalities, to think you'd be proud of me,
there is room to believe,
out of sight,
out of mind,
out of reach,
start over,
It's no way to begin.
Long way from home,
lost by an echo,
and never have known,
I've got pictures to prove I was there,
but you don't care,
there is room to believe,
out of sight,
out of mind,
out of reach,
start over,
start over,
It's no way to begin,
there is room to believe,
out of sight,
out of mind,
out of reach,
start over,
start over,
It's no way to begin,
way to begin,
way to begin.
