

Valkyrie II: Lacuna (feat. Cassandra Kay)

Varien

Monsters slip inside our souls
Waiting to come alive
Turning our hearts cold
My blood is black
It seeps through the cracks
If I could take it back
If I could Fighting love
That runs through our veins
It's an empty space
A lonely game
I hear you cry
Every night in my dreams I'll take it back
My Valkyrie
I'll bring you home
I won't lose hope I will bleed
All of me
To set you free Dagger deep
Blood ran over me
Every melody you ever sung to me
Floods my memory
I can't breathe I vow to right this wrong
I promise here and now
I loved you all along
I threw away my crown
I lost my sanity
You're my key I'll bring you back
My Valkyrie
You're coming home
Never lost hope I will bleed
All of me
To set you free
