Save Your Soul

Spiritual Beggars

Let me sing for pleasure
Let me drink my treasure
Up to the mountain of faith
Hit me againWhile you kiss your left brain
You oppress you right brain
Ice pops up in your ass
You swim with the flockOur presence is a saga
A shore beyond the horizon
Save your soul
Save your soulWhen I read Bukowski
And when I read Martinus
I feel magic in my soul
Boiling me warmDo you dream of freedom?
Or do the demons tell you
There is nothing you can lose
If you swim with the flockOur presence is a saga
A shore beyond the horizon
Save your soul
Save your soulI'm too cool to be a foolLet me sing for pleasure
Let me drink my treasure
Up to the mountain of faith
Hit me againDo you dream of freedom?
Or do the demons tell you
There is nothing you can lose
If you swim with the flockOur presence is a saga
A shore beyond the horizon
Save your soulOur presence is a saga
A shore beyond the horizon
Save your soul
Save your soul
