Ruined

Nate Sallie

Why would I walk away from a life
Where I had it all, had it all
And people say that I've lost it
But I say they're wrong, so longI've been captured by Your grace
Follow home in Your embrace
Tasted waters from Your crystal stream
Oh yeahI've been searching all my days
Looking for this better place
Now I'm living here inside this dreamI've been ruined for this life ordinary
I've been captivated by a different kind of living
Now I'm starving for Your yearning
For I'm ruined, I'm ruined, oh yeahLord, as I for business I'll treat you well
Lord, I'll walk through the park, no, no, no, no
I'm playing it safe, never getting too close
Never going too farChoosing the middle [Incomprehensible] I've never pledged in either side Merely existing, barely getting by
Now I'm looking for Your longings, find a home that's worth belonging
Devastated by Your love divineI've been ruined for this life ordinary
I've been captivated by a different kind of living
Now I'm starving for Your yearningI'm ruined for this life ordinary
I've been captivated by a different kind of living
Now I'm starving for Your yearning, and I'm ruinedSomething had to give the image that was me
I pulled the [Incomprehensible] down caught up in a dream
You can tell I've rearranged, I've prioritized
You can see it on my face, see a fire in my eyesYou got me ruined for ordinary
You got me ruined for ordinary
You got me ruined, You got me ruinedI've been ruined for this life ordinary
I've been oh captivated by Your living
Now I'm starving for Your yearning
I'm ruinedYou got me ruined for ordinary
You got me ruined for ordinary
You got me ruined, You got me ruinedYou got me ruined for ordinary
