Just Another Night

Ian hunter

Oh no, the fuzz, all in a line
My oh my, I think Im gonna die
And its just another night
Its just another nightGot a long black face; who goes there?
All the reefer madness put a poor kid in jail
And its just another night
Yeah, its just another nightOh take it easy boy or its doa
Chrome on my body and a lot of folks say
That its just another night
Hey, its just another night
Oh, its just another night on the other side of lifeHead ones a saw-bones and he wrecked my chair
Said, "Howd you like to do it in a room downstairs"
And its just another night
Oh, just another nightHey now, papa Joe, dont you pull my hair
All this intrigue, it gets me out of my league
And its just another night
Its just another nightHis old man spent a fortune just to get him in
But baby boy grew up just as stupid as him
And its just another night, its just another night
Its just another night on the other side of lifeJust another night, hung down slow
I dont like the hotel let me go
Hells bells, give me a chance
This rock n roller dont wanna dance
Just another night, just another night
Well, its just another night on the other side of lifeI never felt so bad, wheres my shades?
Its gonna be a long one getting crazed
A head spoutin noodles said, "What do you plead?"
I said, "You aint got to touch a man to make a man bleed"Its just another night on the other side
Its just another night on the other side
Its just another night on the other side
