

Nothing Is Innocent

Over the Rhine

Wed wake the dead with the voices in our head
Weve gotten used to ignoring the truth
We close our eyes and breathe and eat the lies
That tell us were so much better than you Silence is loud
Humility is so proud
Nothing is innocent now All the kings men will serve scrambled eggs again
When white washed walls come on crashing down
Well blink and nod and say, how odd
And wonder why old friends dont come around Silence is loud
Humility is so proud
Nothing is innocent now The acid rain, we fear the pain
Will blister and burn the skin
But what is more, the fear we bore
Will eat us alive from within Silence is loud
Humility is so proud
Nothing is innocent now For you and me, yeah
In the land of the free
Nothing is innocent now
Nothing is innocent now
Nothing is innocent now
