You Don't Understand Me

Mando Diao

You came a long way, you didn't know my name, girl You thought that I was just a gigolo And you told all your friends that I was strange and weird But that's a lie that I'm sure you knowSo I'm telling you where to start But you're not interested at all'Cause you, you don't understand me You don't understand what, what I've been through You, you don't understand me You don't understand what, what I've been through Oh, what I've been throughWell, it's such a shame, I'm wasting all my talent Writing songs to you without feelings You didn't want the heaven by your side Well that's too bad, you'll see 'cause I'm warm and niceAnd now you're telling me where to go I wish that I cared but I don't'Cause you, you don't understand me You don't understand what, what I've been through You, you don't understand me Yeah, I will always be the one that holds you in the end

You don't understand what, what I've been through, ohAnd I will always be the one that holds you in the end
Yeah, I will always be the one that holds you in the end
And I will always be the one that holds you in the end
Yeah, I will always be the one that holds will always be the one that holds you in the end
I will always be the one that holds you in the end
Yeah, I will always be the one that holds you in the end
Now in the end, oh, now in the end
