

It Ain't Lonely at the Bottom

NOFX

I look around
I look around me
So many things to do
There's so many things to see
I'm lookin' up at
The Upper Crusties
I know they pity me
Because I do what I please It may be lonely at the top
But for those of us who couldn't stop
We've got a hundred dozen friends
Who make sure the party never ends
We're at a one-way dead end cul-de-sac
I hit rock bottom, but it didn't hit back
I gotta say, this really ain't so bad
It's a funny thing, it's never lonely
I really can't complain because it feels like home to me
Tell me to quit and talking shit about
I really gotta say, this bottom ain't so bad
I got a demon juggernaut from battles I already fought
I put the cog in cognition, I'll sign my last resignation
There is a neon sign and a wooden plaque
They say, you've hit the bottom, we knew you'd be back
I gotta say, it really ain't so bad Tell me to quit, I'm sick of hearing it
Don't see the benefit cause it's really not so bad
Just kinda sad

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>