Dangerous Man

Bert Wills

Usually I'm level-headed, ain't too excitable
Keep it on the slow and steady, Mr. Dependable
Always had the same job, the same look, the same friends
That's the way it's gonna stay, that's the way it's always beenI never knew I had another side
But girl with you, I'm Jekyll and HydeWhen the lights are down low and you nibble on my neck
I can't be held responsible for what might happen next
No telling what I'll do when I get you in my hands
With a woman like you, I'm a dangerous man
Yeah, I'm a dangerous manAll the things I want to do, all the things I want to say
I never met anyone, ever made me feel this way
You're like a drug, baby, you make me crazy, honey
Make me want to rob a bank and make love in the pile of moneyDon't try to act all innocent and sweet
'Cause you know exactly what it is you do to meWhen the lights are down low and you nibble on my neck
I can't be held responsible for what might happen next
No telling what I'll do when I get you in my hands
With a woman like you I'm a dangerous man
I'm a fairly dangerous man, babyYeah, when the lights are down low and you nibble on my neck
I can't be held responsible for what might happen next
No telling what I'll do when I get you in my hands
With a woman like you, yeah, with a woman like you
With a woman like you, baby, I'm a dangerous man
Yeah, I'm a dangerous man, baby
