

For You the Moon

Basement

Near, far,
I will stay where you are.
I'm not thinking clearly ever,
Skin was made for darker weather. Ask me and I'll try,
To reach for further sky.
All I need for flight,
Is feeling from inside. Old, new,
In the maze so true.
Faith is something I desire,
Light the match to start the fire. Ask me and I'll try,
To reach for further sky.
All I need for flight,
Is feeling from inside.
Ask me and I'll try,
To reach for further sky.
All I need for flight,
Is feeling from inside.
