Bewildered

James Brown

Bewildered, lost in a dream

In the love I need, why did we part?
Bewildered, has love, has love died dear?
Wishing your heart could feel what's in my heartMust I have sleepless night
And endless days?
Oh love, why did you keep my soul?
Without a spark I'm in the darkBewildered, I need your
I need your, I need your guiding hand
I'll never, no, I'll never understandHow you can love me, how you can love me
How you can love me, how you can love me
How you can love me and leave me
Bewildered, bewildered
