

Waltz Away Dreaming (w/Toby Bourke)

George Michael

(I'm here if you see me)
She's got a song in her head and she'll sing to me
She's got a laugh that reminds me of why she's in love with me
She'd never let show she was lonely in case it had frightened me
She was carpet and stone, independent, alone
But this love always shone around me every time, ohWaltz away dreaming till your day begins again
Free from the seasons and this state I'm in
And oh, I can't hold it all under one love
It was so long ago when we danced in the streets
Now you fly like an eagle above while I waltz away anyway
And I'm waltzing my days away
Searching for this woman I love(I'm here if you see me)
She had a history, joy and pain, and she chose to leave
She had a thousand and one photographs that you would not believe
She'll come to you in disguise, she's there in you children's eyes
Still our mother, she's still your wife
So let herWaltz away dreaming till your day begins again, oh yeah
Free from the reasons and this state I'm in
And oh,(trust me) I can't hold it all
(she ain't going anywhere) under one love
(trust me, she told me, when you're ready she'll be there)
It was so long ago (no, don't let go of her)
When we kissed in the streets
Now you fly like an eagle above while I waltz away anyway
Then I'm waltzing my days away
Searching for this woman I love

Songwriters

MICHAEL, GEORGE / BOURKE, TOBYPublished by

Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>