Shallow

Unwritten Law

Well sometimes it seems you just don't understand
The way I think and who I am
When I'm, I'm told what I'm supposed to be
You think, you know what's best for meWell, I wanna see you standing next to me, yeah
Seems you got nothing much to say
And when you're dying, lying next to me now
I'll turn my head and walk awayAnd sometimes it seems I might be losing touch
Or maybe I just try too much
Now I, now I get told I'm crazy
Nothing you can say will phase me nowWell, I wanna see you standing next to me, yeah
Seems you got nothing much to say
And when you're dying, lying next to me now
I'll turn my head and walk away, heyNow I walk alone
My thoughts aren't always carved in stone
My life revolves according to me
And what you think don't mean a  thing to me
Yeah, you'll see, I'll make it further on my ownWell, I wanna see you standing next to me, yeah
Seems you got nothing much to say
And when you're dying, lying next to me now
I'll turn my head and walk awayWell, I wanna see you standing next to me, yeah
Seems you got nothing much to say
And when you're dying, lying next to me now
I'll turn my head and walk away
