

You Bet Right

The Strand

You wanna lie and tell the world that itâ€™s all right
You wanna give em what they want to pacify
You wanna live with plastic smiles and curt replies
You wanna lie? You wanna lie? You wanna lie Well itâ€™s hard to tell, Itâ€™s like I never said farewell. I watch the ships set sail, into the night. Well itâ€™s hard to tell, when itâ€™s time to ring the bell. Iâ€™m stronger, but you bet right. And I know what it meant to me. And I know she felt the same. But itâ€™s been six months since we went walking, And the futureâ€™s still miles away

You were right; Iâ€™m not okay
You were right; Iâ€™m not okay

Today my world is spinning, tomorrow never arrives
They say that time is medicine, well I donâ€™t think Iâ€™m healing right Back to stitching up my bitching mouth. Back to wishing I were far away. Back to feeling I didnâ€™t give enough. Back to flinching when I hear your name

Smash the kind of tale I wanna tell. Smash the kind of game I wanna play. Smash the kind of view Iâ€™d like to have. Itâ€™s all the same Iâ€™m still the same, Iâ€™m not okay
