

Zodiac Prologue

Eternity X

There is a place within every living thing that holds the key to its creation

It is in this place we find who we are

It is also in this place we find the secret of the ZodiacWelcome to my world

Step into my mirror

There's twelve stories to be told

And a billion souls to hearThere's fire that burns so brightly

There's water that flows through lives

There's air that we never see

And earth the mother of life

And the Zodiac
