

Fading All Away

Jay Reatard

Time may heal the wounds
But I will kill you

Slowly
Fading all away

Look out your window
To what the wind blows

Slowly
Fading all away

I won't stop
Until your dead
Because of voices in my head
I won't stop
Until your dead
Helping you
And hurting me

Time will heal the wounds but I
Will kill you

Slowly
Fading all away

Hear
The voices cry and watch
The feelings die

Slowly
Fading all away

I won't stop
Until your dead
Because of voices in my head
I won't stop
Until your dead
Helping you

And hurting me

Time will heal the wounds
But I will kill you

Slowly
Fading all away
