

The Temple of the Crescent Moon

Tiamat

it's been a long time but we're here again it's been 5 long years of thunder, lightning and rain so cold, so hard without you but tonight we're coming through the temple of the crescent moon is calling you tonight the temple of the crescent moon is calling you tonight when the skies light your eyes with all my fire the temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night yeah it's been a long time but we're back again for another five years of thunder, lightning and rain And now the hurly burly's done And the fight's been fought and won the temple of the crescent moon is calling you tonight
the temple of the crescent moon is calling you tonight
the temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night
the temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night
the temple of the crescent
