Grey

BarlowGirl

Grey's my favorite color
Black and white has never been my thing
I'll take my drink luke warm now
Hot and cold is not the thing for meAbsolutes are hidden
I've buried my convictionsI cannot be blind no more
Numb to what I'm living for Help me stop this compromise that justifies these lies
I need your passion in this lifeI don't want to impose
Who really needs to know what I believe
'Cause no one likes rocking boats
And who would care to see the way I seeSo give me the fire, yeah
God give me your fire
And raise this life higher
