

All Things

Aaron Gillespie

The hidden room inside the heart
You keep the things I've broken
The silence of the guilty soul
Leaves our fears unspoken
You are no stranger here
So you are holding
All things, all things, all things are in your hands X2
The longing in an orphans smile
The beauty of the baggers reach
The roads you paved with blood and tears is where you are calling us to be .
there are no stranger hereFather show was
All things, all things, all things are in your hands X2
God is beautiful
Christ is wonderful
All things, all things, all things are in your hands X2
No live, no dead, to keep you away to keep you away
To keep you away
(repeat)
No doubt no shame
to Keep us away
All things, all things, all things are in your hands X2
