

Leave It All Up to You

The Staples

Leave it all up to love, leave it all up to love, leave it all up to love, and love will see you thru. Tell me why people lie people cry, they put that stuff in your head. It's a shame all the pain they try to send you thru when you try to get ahead. When the gossip tries to get you down, and you feel like your soul is in the lost and found.

Leave it all up to love, leave it all up to love, leave it all up to love, and love will see you thru.
