Water

Erised

WaterI can't help but dream of water, I feel you wash over me,
lost in my dreams of water, oh, please don't wake me...Im drowning in your eyes,
No one can save me,
Lost in love,
Lost in your inner sea...I can't help but dream of water, all I need is to drink of thee,
lost in my dreams of water,
you flow right into me,
I can't help but dream of water,
I feel you wash over me,
lost in my dreams of water,
oh, please don't wake me...Everything you say,
everything you do,
every way you move,
endears me to you...Im drowning in your eyes,
No one can save me,
Lost in love,
Lost in your inner sea...I can't help but dream of water,
all I need is to drink of thee,
lost in my dreams of water,
you flow right into me,
I can't help but dream of water,
I feel you wash over me,
lost in my dreams of water,
oh, please don't wake me...Everything you say,
everything you do,
every way you move,
endears me to you...Always yours, is how I will stay,
and together we'll be,
till the sky drinks the seas...
