

Paper Mansions

Jean Shepard

Don't build for me paper mansions that only stand until you've gone

    You paint the nicest futures of anyone I know

    You always leave me holding on to pretty words that glow

You've built a thousand mansions out of dreams that seem so strong

    But they're always made of paper not of stone

    Don't build for me paper mansions that I can never call my own

For love can't live in paper mansions that only stand until you've gone
You always been a dreamer dear and I'm a dreamer too

But I guess I've had too many of the kind that don't come true

    So don't build me no mansions with paper walls so thin

    That only stand until you leave again

    Don't build for me...
