Come Back Down

saracuse

I've come here a thousand times, some things never change
"yes I will, anything you say"
I've quit this a million times, can't quite stay away
Just one more time...I'll be ok
But I'm so damn tired

When I come back down
Though I'm crazy to Anything you want from me I'll do

"hey joe, could you spare a buck
I could use some food"
What a laugh, one more fool
Two hours and it's back again, lapping at my heels
Stop yelling..I'll get through
But I'm so damn tired

I've come here a thousand time
Some things never change
Lay me down...take me away
God, I'm so damn tired
