

distance two

Glowfriends

Sitting in an empty room
Not a thing that I can do to keep these walls from folding in on me

Leave the television on Keep the blinds tightly drawn
The pain is gone
The pain is gone
I feel nothing at all

I'm waiting
I'm waiting
I'm waiting
I'm waiting

Sitting in an empty room
I can't find a trace of you except for the cold air except for the spots where the blood's been spilled Just the way we left it

I think that I am going deaf
'cause I can't hear anything anymore except for the hollow tone inside these walls we call a home says it never was, it don't exist, so just forget it

I'm waiting
I'm waiting
I'm waiting
I'm waiting
