

The Vagabond

John Shirley-Quirk

Golden waves
In all directions
I could lose my soul right here Colour lights
On the runway
Makes a stranger feel unchained I'm running after time and I miss the sunshine
Summer days will come happiness will be mine
I'm lost in my words I don't know where I'm going
I do my best I can not to worry about things I feel loose
I feel haggard
Don't know what I'm looking for Something true
Something lovely
That will make me feel alive I'm running after time and I miss the sunshine
Summer days are not so far everything's
Gonna be fine
