Tell Me

Simple Jack

Tell me what you came to see
Tell me what a happened to a lettin me be
When all I really wanna do is just go
But girl I've got to know
How did you get over me
You must feel like you've been set free
When everything that had a held us back
Has led us to this hearts attack
I never meant to let you down
How'd you ever let me leave this town
All the love that we let go
But still I, Just don'tKnow
How could you ever think that I would
Know
That all you needed was to breath and not
To go
I cant believe I let this end oh
NoIn a way Ive gotta flip the scene
And topple down my childhood dreams
Segregate myself from my former self
Insinuate that I knew myself
Overcome my past desires
Inner peace is a truth of liars
Indispose of my guarded soul
Theres no excuse for what I stole
I gotta find a way to grow
And while I been away I don't wanna know
All the love that we let go
Still I just don'tKnow
How could you ever think that I would
Know
That all you needed was to breath and not
To go
I cant believe I let this end oh
No
