

Cigarettes and Valentines

Green Day

I don't wanna go back home
I don't wanna kiss goodnight
Let us paralyze this moment till it dies
To the end of the earth Under the valley of the stars
There's a car crashing
Deep inside my heart Take a ride through the avenue
Across the great divide
There's a siren screaming
I'm alive, it cries Red alert is the color
Of your paper valentine
Intertwined on this Moment passing by
Till passing by Take a ride through the avenue
Across the great divide
There's a siren screaming
Of your paper valentine
In this
Do you wanna be my valentine?
