

Heart Heart Heartbreak

Boys Like Girls

Heartbreak, heart, heart, heartbreak
Girl, don't say you love me when you're out the door
(Woah, yeah)
'Cause I know things are different than they were before
(Oh woah, yeah)
You kill me with your kiss, it's so hard to resist you
When you look me in the eyes tonight
And say we're headed for a heart, heart, heartbreak
And I don't ever, ever wanna hear you say
Don't say you love me, don't even
Don't say you love me, you're leaving
Headed for a heart, heart, heartbreak
I'm gonna, gonna turn around and walk away
Don't say you love me, don't even
Don't say you love me, you're leaving
You said we'd stick it out through the thick and thin
(Woah, yeah)
But when the walls came down, you wouldn't let me in
(Oh woah, yeah)
We've been through it all, my back's against the wall
It's crashing down on me tonight
Now we're headed for a heart, heart, heartbreak
And I don't ever, ever wanna hear you say
Don't say you love me, don't even
Don't say you love me, you're leaving

Headed for a heart, heart, heartbreak
I'm gonna, gonna turn around and walk away
Don't say you love me, don't even
Don't say you love me, you're leaving
I'm sick and tired of this whole situation
Here comes another fight
Beating me down with the same conversation
No, don't say you love me tonight
Heart, heart, heartbreak
Heart, heart, heartbreak
Yeah, we're headed for a heart, heart, heartbreak
And I don't ever, ever wanna hear you say
Don't say you love me, don't even

Don't say you love me, you're leaving
Headed for a heart, heart, heartbreak
I'm gonna, gonna turn around and walk away
Don't say you love me, don't even
Don't say you love me, you're leaving
Headed for a heart, heart, heartbreak
And I don't ever, ever wanna hear you say
Don't say you love me, don't even
Don't say you love me, you're leaving
