Stranger

God Street Wine

I should've thought twice before, before I gave you my hand
And let you take a part of me that I want back.
And now I'm all tangled up, sitting here stuck on you.
How did I let it get this far?
I should've never fell in love, I should've known you weren?t the one.
I should've seen it from the start that you, would go and break my heart.
[Chorus:]I should've kept you a stranger, I walk by every day.
Stranger, a simple "Hi, how?s your day?"
I should've thought about it a little bit longer
Before I let you in.
I should've kept you a stranger, I walk by every day.
Stranger, a simple "Hi, how?s your day?"
I should've never made the mistake that I did
When I let you in life.
I should've kept you a stranger
Ah-ah, oh-ooo, ah-ah, oh-oo, ah-ah, oh-oooooooo
[Verse 2]I'm feeling so empty now, I gotta move on but how?
Don't think I ever will believe in love again.
After I gave you a second chance, for you to turn around and let me down, how will I ever trust again?
I should've never fell in love (never fell in love)
I should've known you weren?t the one. (known you weren't the one)
I should've seen it from the start that you would go and break my heart.
[Chorus:]I should've kept you a stranger, I walk by every day.

Stranger, a simple "Hi, how?s your day?"
I should've thought about it a little bit longer
Before I let you in.
I should've kept you a stranger, I walk by every day.
Stranger, a simple "Hi, how?s your day?"
I should've never made the mistake that I did
When I let you in life.
[Bridge]I wish I stayed away, I wish I didn?t hurt
I wish I didn?t cry every night before bed
(I should've never) gave you my heart
(I should've never) wasted my time
I should've never let you in
I wish that I never met you, stranger
[Chorus:]I should've kept you a stranger, I walk by every day.

Stranger, a simple "Hi, how?s your day?"
I should've thought about it a little bit longer
Before I let you in.
I should've kept you a stranger, I walk by every day.
Stranger, a simple "Hi, how?s your day?"
I should've never made the mistake that I did
When I let you in life.
I should've kept you a stranger
Ah-ah, oh-ooo, ah-ah, oh-oo, ah-ah, oh-oooooooo
I said it babe, I said it babe, oh, oh-oooooo
I wish I never let you in
Should've kept you a stranger
