Fettered In Shackles of Light

Sacrilege

Crawling helpless through my scornful mind looking upon my inner thoughts
Bless the stars my company in the night
Demoniaced, fettered inshackles of lightI feel rage for the disdainful burning sun whose light makes me paralysedDamned to live in the eternal darkness Please just for once let me bear the sunsetA runaway in a world of sin
Alone I see the spirits fade away
Bless the stars my company in the night
Demoniaced, fetterd in shackles of lightI feel rage for the disdainful burning sun whose light makes me paralysedThe need for sorrow makes me weaker Bring death into my heathen heartwhole soul
Unchain the shackles round my neck
Shackles that keep me fetteredDamned to live in eternal darkness
Please just for once let me bear the sunsetBless the stars my compani in the night
Demoniaced, fettered in shackles of lightBless the stars my company in the night Demoniaced, fettered, fettered in shackles of light...
