

Fettered In Shackles of Light

Sacrilege

Crawling helpless through my scornful mind looking upon my inner thoughts
Bless the stars my company in the night
Demoniaced, fettered in shackles of light I feel rage for the disdainful burning sun whose light makes me paralysed Damned to live in the eternal darkness Please just for once let me bear the sunset A runaway in a world of sin
Alone I see the spirits fade away
Bless the stars my company in the night
Demoniaced, fettered in shackles of light I feel rage for the disdainful burning sun whose light makes me paralysed The need for sorrow makes me weaker Bring death into my heathen heart whole soul
Unchain the shackles round my neck
Shackles that keep me fettered Damned to live in eternal darkness
Please just for once let me bear the sunset Bless the stars my company in the night
Demoniaced, fettered in shackles of light Bless the stars my company in the night Demoniaced, fettered, fettered in shackles of light...
