

Nodding Off

Brandy

I tried to stay up 'cause you're on your way up
For the weekend, said you wanna see me again
Said you'd be over, still ain't seen your Rover
Looking out my window it's a quarter to ten
It's about that time, I really can't stay hot
Know you wanna kick it and I was with it
But I won't be tripping if you don't show
Or hear you knocking
They got vacancy at the Howard Johnson
You know
Don't try to call me 'cause the ringer's off
Don't try to page me, my two-way is lost
I had a Jones for ya but it seems you lost
I tried to wait for ya but I'm nodding off
I watched Forest Gump and put something on my stomach
I called my cousin, listened to her gossiping mouth
Touched up my makeup, anything to wake up
Trying to take up some time while I'm waiting it out
What's the hold up, thought you would've rolled up
In the driveway before the day gave
Why should I wait, I'm sleepy as hell
And there's no way I can abort this mission
So listen
Don't try to call me 'cause the ringer's off
Don't try to page me, my two-way is lost
I had a Jones for ya but it seems you lost
I tried to wait for ya but I'm nodding off
No hard feelings
Really, I'm already under the cover
Please don't be mad at me
You gotta believe I still love ya
Don't try to call me 'cause the ringer's off
Don't try to page me, my two-way is lost
I had a Jones for ya but it seems you lost
I tried to wait for ya but I'm nodding off

Songwriters

MOSLEY, TIMOTHY Z./MILSAP, WALTER WORTH III/NELSON, CANDICE CLOTIEL
Published by Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>