

Aya

Monsieur Z

She's a reckless lover with her blood stained hands
    'Round the neck of her helpless man
She's the midnight silence, an outbound train
    She's glory of fallen names
        Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
    Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
She's a patient killer, a timeless hand
    The choke of the falling sands
She's a proven saint with a witches tongue
    The gods of war at her command
        Sweet Aya, bring it on
I wanna kiss you till they're gone
    Sweet Aya, bring it on
I wanna kiss you till they're gone
    Till they're all gone
        Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
    Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
She's the broken shadows on the fallen walls
    With no master there's no call
She's the faithful silence that visits all
    With no mercy, no remorse
        Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
    Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
    Sweet Aya, bring it on
I wanna kiss you till they're gone
    Sweet Aya, bring it on
I wanna kiss you till they're gone
    Till they're all gone
        Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
    Aya, Aya, we're alone
And there's no room here anymore
    Aya, Aya, we're alone

There's no room here anymore
Aya, Aya, we're alone
