

Hello Friend

S Club 7

Hello friend, I know you're smiling but believe it
Don't have to pretend,
I know at times it seems your broken heart
Might never mend, hello friend
Hello girl, I had lost my faith in human kind
Until your call
It's nice to know you've been there for me
Through it all, hello girl
Hello friend, it is strange, the things you'll go through
'Til you finally realize
(You will realize)
That the things you need the most are always
Right before your eyes
(Before your eyes)
And the truth is always something
You would never know is true
I guess I can't deny it, no you can't deny it
I really need you
Hello friend, I never had the chance to say
How much I really miss

The things I'm finding so hard now, I can't resist, hello friend
Hello girl, things were better from the day
You came into my life
And everything I need to know is in your eyes, hello girl
And hello friend
You will realize
And the truth is always something
You would never know is true
I guess I can't deny it, no you can't deny it
I really need you
Hello friend
Hello friend
Hello friend
Ooh
I guess I can't deny it, no you can't deny it
I really need you
Hello friend
