

The Writing On the Wall

Alter Bridge

Don't tell us this is normal
Don't tell us there's no change
So selfish and immoral
You're to blame
Cause you're the greatest rotter
Still crossing out of line Now tell me who will suffer
For all your crimes?
We are running out of time
Out of time
And the writing's on the wall
That the end will begin
Still you do not fade at all
And keep denying the greatest sin
Ignore the truth and follow Reap all that you sow
Spawn the future sorrow
We will know
Refusing every warning
Deny the rate of change
The ignorance is swarming
What a shame
Then you know that you're to blame You're to blame
And the writing's on the wall
That the end will begin
Still you do not fade at all
Throwing lies to the wind
And the writing's on the wall So I say it again
Still you do not fade at all
And keep denying the greatest sin
You're the one to blame
For this rate of change
No tomorrow
When will you see?
And the writing's on the wall
That the end will begin Still you do not fade at all
Throwing lies to the wind
And the writing's on the wall
So I say it again
Still you do not fade at all
And keep denying the greatest sin

The greatest sin
Deny it again
When will it end?
