

Walking in My Sleep

Alabama 3

(If I were ever to die, not likely say I, because I am gonna go on and on, just like the sun that you see come up every dawn, I'm there, eternal. You know, the power I have is the power to unleash love in every sphere. I can make ladies rise from the dead, no fear, watch how I do it, listen up here. A drop if mah seed to the east, to the west, to the north and the south and then I bring 'em up slow and they start shouting out loud and I make love till the cock crows and then, baby, don't you know, you're going back in the hole again 'til I bring you up once again to fill mah loving-cup)I found darkness in the heart of the sunshine.

I got blinded by the light in the moon.

A black dog was barking at my back door

When I began my life born alone.

And now my home is just a headache, just a heartache.

Ain't no comfort in my family's arms.

Numb now, I know I'm urgin' to go under.

There ain't no need to set the clock to alarm.I like walking in my sleep

But it's a nightmare on the 13th floor

I've been wading in too deep

They found some bloodstains on the basement doorI went looking for some peace in the country

I found violence on the village green.

The trees I climbed are tapped now and wired

With undercover closed circuit TV;

Things fall apart; my centre is not holding;

I crawl the city streets like a blindman.

The beast has just departed Bethlehem;

The Second Coming is getting out of hand.

Songwriters

CHARLES ORLANDO HARRISON, MARK SAMS, ROBERT SPRAGG PIERS MARSH, SIMON
EDWARDS JAKE BLACKPublished by

Lyrics © BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.

Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlrics.com/>