

Hello Strawberry Skies

Trouble

There's lonely people in distress
Hell is better, I confess
All my dreams have been destroyed
Horse misused, eternal voidSo many names upon the wall
Purple curtain, funeral pall
Seems they were so sincere
Mercy blossom, future's hereHello strawberry skies
Pleasant dreams for tired lives
Hello strawberry skies
Where the world never diesDon't need a cross to hang around
Wings of envy, scenic sound
All our lives we've been on the run
Inner freedom rising sun
