The Glass Child

The sun breaks in Woke up lonesome again where I fell asleep on the floor Another day wandering aimless again and I'll go to sleep on my own I still hold on to the days that we had and I'm wondering why these things never lasts
I hope you see that with time this will pass for me too
I still miss you so Another year, it is winter again wandering through this town in the snow People hide in their houses with friends but I'm going through this alone I still hold on to the days that we had
and I'm wondering why these things never lasts
I hope you'll see that with time this will pass for me too
I still miss you so You told me to be free but I can't let you go I'll always go back for more I'll wait for you, if you ask me to and I'll go where you are if you let me to and I'll take down this fence and won't build up it again
I swear
I'll give my all I still miss you so ..
