

All About You

40 Below Summer

Hey baby, I'm choking, I'll help you breathe
Hey baby, I'm smoking, I'll set your mind at ease
I feel you inside what do you want from me
I want you to open wide
I'm needing to touch you do you fiend for me
I'm needing to fuck you would you bleed for me
And you wanted it all, it all before I fall
Hey girl, better get up and move
Watch that ass, cause I come to groove
When I tasted you, then I wanted more
Inside you I was reborn
Lay down and you injected
Fill my veins up I've been infected
Your disease runs through me
Fills me up every time you do me
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about you
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about you
Hey woman, come thrill me all night long
Hey woman, come fill me I'll make you strong
I can feel the way you the way I what
You touched me with betrayal and I tear you up
I loved you, you moved me I'm your little girl
Your very touch consumes me step into my world
And then you'd rape me and then you'd disgrace me
Open up and heed my words

Listen up as I kick the verbs
Walk the line of love and disturbed
You're gonna get just what you deserve
I don't want you, I don't need you
I love you, but I don't believe you
You're just a waste of time
Get the fuck out of my mind

It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about you
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about the pain you put me through
It's all about you
I can't kill all this pain, you know I burn in hell
Can't refrain, I just might as well go insane inside
I'm screwed, you ripped my heart in two
There's nothing that I can do, all the shit you put me through
I still love you, do you really?
I still love you, do you really?
I still love you, do you really?
I still love you, do you really?
It's all about you it's all about me
I'd do anything for you
It's all about you it's all about me
I'd do anything for you
It's all about you it's all about me
I'd do anything for you
It's all about you it's all about me
I'd do anything for you bitch
