

Take Me With You

Whitesnake

Every time I see my
baby home,
I wanna kiss a little better so I get stoned.
Gonna spread her pretty
legs so I can see,
Sweet lip honey be the
death of me
And I will discover you'll be my midnight
lover,
Oh babe, bring it on
home to me.
Sometimes when I'm
feeling low,
I go looking for a lover
where the bad girls go.
Sorry little girl, If you can't stay,
Your red light mama
gonna show the way.
And then a certain
madness,
Will 'crease my heart
with sadness
Oh babe, bring it on
home to me.
Take me with you I will give you anything a
woman needs,
Take me with you I will
give you anything a
woman needs.
I know love and what it means,
It's a skinny little girl in tight ass jeans.
I love to hear'em moan
and cry,

'Cos God made men to satisfy.

And with the fire
returning,
I feel the fever burning Oh babe, bring it on
home to me.

Take me with you I will
give you anything a
woman needs,

Take me with you I will
give you anything a
woman needs.

Oh, take me with you.

(Solo)

Every time I see my
baby home,

I wanna kiss a little
better so I get stoned.

Gonna spread her pretty
legs so I can see,

Sweet lip honey be the
death of me.

And I will discover
you'll be my midnight
lover,

Oh babe, bring it on
home to me.

Take me with you I will
give you anything a
woman needs,

Take me with you I will
give you anything a
woman needs.

Take me with you
