Love Is Stronger Than Pride

Ricochet

I saw your mama and she said don't call you
Talked to your best friend and she said no need to
But I had to tell you, I hate how I hurt you
Now, I know how bad I hurt me tooIf I gotta get down on my knees tonight, I'll do it
If you wanna see me cry then, baby, let's get to it
If I gotta beg and plead to make you see I need you in my life
Well, love is stronger than prideI've got no right to ask you to forgive me
But I got no choice 'cause it's about to kill me
I've been headstrong and I was dead wrong
And one minute more without you's just too longIf I gotta get down on my knees tonight, I'll do it
If you wanna see me cry then, baby, let's get to it
If I gotta beg and plead to make you see I need you in my life
Well, love is stronger than prideIf I gotta beg and plead to make you see I need you in my life
Well, love is stronger than pride
If I gotta beg and plead to make you see I need you in my life
Well, love is stronger, my love is stronger
Love is stronger than pride
