Camouflage

Time, no sense of time
No sense of no one
Me and the endless skyScenes, the fading scenes
The world that I've seen
A shade of transiencyHeaven, back to heaven
It's back on my mind
Back with meShould I stay or should I stumble?
Should I pray or should I run
To find a place, to live somehow?Time, no sense of time
No sense of no one
Me and the endless skyDreams, I'm giving in
Sweat on my skin
A feeling so pure and clean
