

Edema Ruh

Nightwish

One by one we light the candles of the show
One by one entered a theatre of the primal birth
Silently watch the planetary curtain go down
Laugh and drink joys as the powerful play greets you tonight
We are the Edema Ruh -
We know the songs the sirens sang
Sea of stream, every tale true
The verse we weave with you will take you home
We've got a pick to open all of the gates
A show you will see, a starlight to drown all your cares
Mirror houses, the sweetest kisses and lights
The Debussy twilight between winter and the roaring sea
We are the Edema Ruh -
We know the songs the sirens sang
Sea of stream, every tale true
The verse we weave with you will take you home
Dance to the whistle to the play to the story
To infinite encores
Laugh at the royalty with sad crowns
And hear the chorus once more
We are the Edema Ruh -
We know the songs the sirens sang
Sea of stream, every tale true
The verse we weave with you will take you home
