Even Snakes Have Hearts

Kids In the Way

The truth is out, I can see your heavy breathing
The lights are down and you're moving out in the dark
So kiss my face, commit yourself to treason
Now run away, you broke my heartThe snakes are in the garden, swallowing down their prey
The flowers all are faded, their scent has gone away
The sky turns red over midnight
Your eyes don't look the sameThe truth is out, I can see your heavy breathing
The lights are down and you're moving out in the dark
So kiss my face, commit yourself to treason
Now run away, you broke my heartThe hours now are turning and nobody lies awake
The children all are sleeping, a lonely death dirge plays
The ropes pulls tight under your weight
The nightmare ends todayThe truth is out, I can see your heavy breathing
The lights are down and you're moving out in the dark
So kiss my face, commit yourself to treason
Now run away, you broke my heartYou broke my heart
You broke my heartI hope it's worth the price you paid
I hope it's worth the time you gave
I hope it's worth your lifeThe truth is out, I can see your heavy breathing
The lights are down and you're moving out in the dark
So kiss my face, commit yourself to treason
Now run away, you broke my heartThe truth is out and I just see
So kiss my face, commit yourself to treason
Now run away, you broke my heartYou broke my heart
You broke my heartI hope it's worth the price you paid
I hope it's worth the time you gave
I hope it's worth your life
